

I am personally acquainted with W. E. Miller.
I first made his acquaintance in the City of New Orleans, he came to Texas about the first of February 1836, joined the first Infantry, Regular Army of Texas on the 13th day of February 1836 and was appointed first Lieutenant of Company B first Infantry Commanded by myself Lieut. Miller remained in the service until the first Infantry was mustered out of service in 1837 late in the fall of that year I think, he was with his company, and participated in the Battle of San Jacinto was a most Efficient Officer, and received an honorable discharge when his Regiment was disbanded in the fall of 1837 I think it was.
